

Indigenous Bursary

The Trinity Indigenous Bursary is available to local Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students entering Year 7. Through this Bursary the College seeks to support Indigenous students who demonstrate a commitment to their learning, respect for the values and ideals of Trinity Catholic College and a desire to achieve their goals beyond schooling.

Each Bursary will provide up to a full reduction in tuition fees applied from Year 7 through to Year 12. All other fees and charges will remain as normal. Bursaries are subject to annual review with students expected to be continually work to their ability and cooperate with school rules.

Eligibility - Students must be regarded as Indigenous Australians and should have sufficient self-confidence and personal support to enter high school.

Selection Criteria - Academic levels and achievements of a student are considered, but are not the predominant criteria for selection. Selection is based on consideration of the following criteria:

Academic - students should demonstrate sufficient study skills to cope with the demands of the curriculum; good work habits, eg completing homework, preparedness to tackle new work; interest in learning, and reasonable literacy and numeracy levels

Non-Academic - students may have a talent in a particular field such as in sport, art, dance, music, drama, leadership, etc.

Commitment - students must demonstrate a preparedness to commit to stay at the College until the completion of Year 12.

Attitude - students must demonstrate a positive attitude to learning, respond positively to the school environment

Attendance – students are to attend school a minimum of 85% and attend all compulsory school activities including: Commencement Mass, Foundation Day, Graduation Mass, Swimming Carnival, Athletics Carnival, Champagnat and Nagle Day Liturgies, Year level reflection days.
